Johnsonville State Historic Park, located off U.S. Hwy. 70, is named for Military Governor Andrew Johnson. This 600-acre park on the eastern side of Kentucky Lake overlooks the site of the Battle of Johnsonville.

Cavalry forces under Lt. Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest sank four Federal gunboats down-stream and destroyed a Union Army supply depot at Johnsonville. Four of the original rifle pits are beautifully preserved. Interpretive tours are available.

The museum located here relates the history of the area. Exhibits in the museum depict the Civil War era and the Battle of Johnsonville.

The Museum may be visited April 1st - November 1st and is opened upon request. Entry is free.

Take exit 126 on I-40. Go north on U.S. 641 to Hwy. 70E in Camden. The park is located in New Johnsonville. Follow signs to the park.

Access Fees may apply. Call park for details.
